

May Climbing Comp Info pack

This competition is a fun social competition to get in some good climbs in while bringing everyone together in a fun competitive setting. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to join whether you have been climbing since the stone ages or just starting to find your feet in climbing, we are all here for a fun challenge.

Qualifiers:

The Qualifiers for the competition will be held over 1 week which climbers will be able to come in as many times as they want over the week to achieve their best 10 climbs and logging them on my climb.

Qualifier week begins Monday 17th 12pm and ends on Sunday 23rd 6pm.

Finals:

The top five climbers for each category will be invited to participate in the finals, if they aren't able, then sixth place, seventh etc. to make up five competitors for each division.

Rockhoppers will have their finals during the 4pm-5:30pm class on Thursday 27th

All other categories will have their finals from 6pm to 9pm on Thursday 27th May

Categories:

Climbers can choose which category they best fit into or would like to compete in within our guide just below:

Intermediate: Grade 17-20

Advanced: Grade 21-24

Crushers: Grade 25+

Lead: Open (any climbing grade just on lead)

If climbers are unsure which category they should pick, feel free to ask any of our staff for help.

Registration and entry fee:

Registrations are made either:

Online: <https://www.edgerockclimbing.com.au/competitions.html>

In the gym: talk to staff and make sure they register you in the comp

You may only enter in one division so choose wisely!

If Edge staff identify that you are ineligible for the division you have selected, you will be removed and repositioned into the more suitable division.

Fees:

Entry only $25 – includes entry to the competition for the full week (does not include entry to the gym)

Entry AND Week Membership $45 – includes entry to the competition AND entry to the gym for the full week (you can climb as much as you want, either part of the competition or not).

Scoring:

Rockhoppers will be scoring will be done with a printed scoresheet (staff will keep it at the gym)

All other categories will be using the MyClimb app to enter in the climbs they complete as they go. You can add as many climbs as you have done even if it is more than 10, MyClimb will calculate the top ten for you, you just need to enter your climbs in.

Note: Please check that you are entered into the correct division in the correct competition.

e.g. “Intermediate” in the “May Climbing Social Qualifiers Top Rope”

To complete a climb, you must begin at the start of the climb and get all the way to the final hold, holding it for at least 3 seconds to show you have control, without falling or sitting/resting on the rope.

There will be extra points given for flash attempts. To be able to claim a flash attempt, you must complete the climb from the bottom of the climb to the top hold without falling off or resting on the rope on your first attempt since the start of comp week.

If you try a climb and fall off you cannot continue the climb and count that towards your top 10, you can either continue projecting the climb or come down and try the climb again (projects do not count towards your score).

If you achieve a climb not on the first attempt, but any attempt afterwards without falling, that is considered a ‘redpoint’.

No extra points will be given for onsights.

Prizes:

Prizes will be given to podium finishes for each division, after the finals.

If the climber is not present to receive their prize, they will be able to pick it up from the front counter at their earliest convenience.
